

KARATE'S CONTRIBUTION TO SOCIETY

“Guardian Girls Global Karate Programme” is an international initiative that promotes gender equality and women’s empowerment by teaching women self-defence from all forms of Gender-Based-Violence (GBV) through Karate Training.

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE GLOBAL KEY FIGURES

1 IN 3 OR 736 M

Women have been subjected to sexual violence or intimate partner violence, or both

1 IN 4

Women between the ages of 15-24 who have been in a relationship will have experienced GBV

1 woman in every 10 minutes
Killed by her Partner

According to the UN Women’s 2024 report

SCOPE AND GLOBAL REACH OF THE PROGRAMME

Develop and implement women self-defence through karate training in more than 30.000 clubs in 200 countries members of World Karate Federation.

ORGANIZERS

WITH THE COLLABORATION OF

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
OF JAPAN

